

Stationery

Themed Brain Teasers!

Write an advert for your favourite item of stationery.

remember to include...

exaggerated adjectives

a memorable slogan

facts and figures

emotive language

www.planbee.com

Which item of stationery is being described?

I'm not a razor, but I have a blade. I help things work, and I am manmade.

Which item of stationery is being described?

I'm not a razor, but I have a blade. I help things work, and I am manmade.

I am a pencil sharpener.

Now it is your turn! Pick an item of stationery and write a riddle or a clue describing it. Who can solve your clue?

Work out how much each of these items is worth and solve the calculation.

+

+

= 6

+

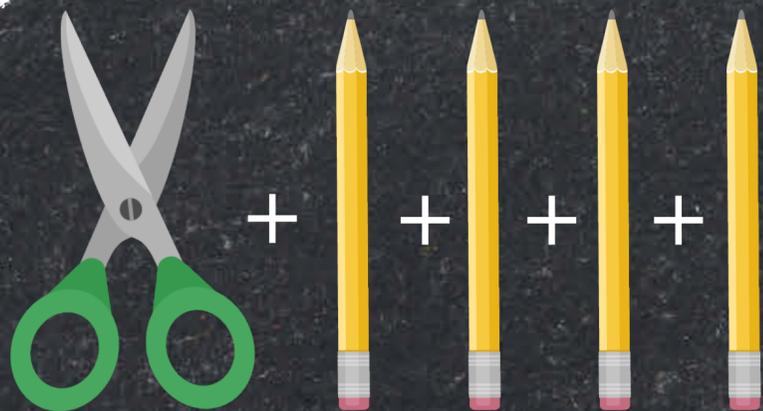

= 10

=

=

+

+

+

+

= 6

+

+

=

=

Work out how much each of these items is worth and solve the calculation.

+

+

= 6

+

= 10

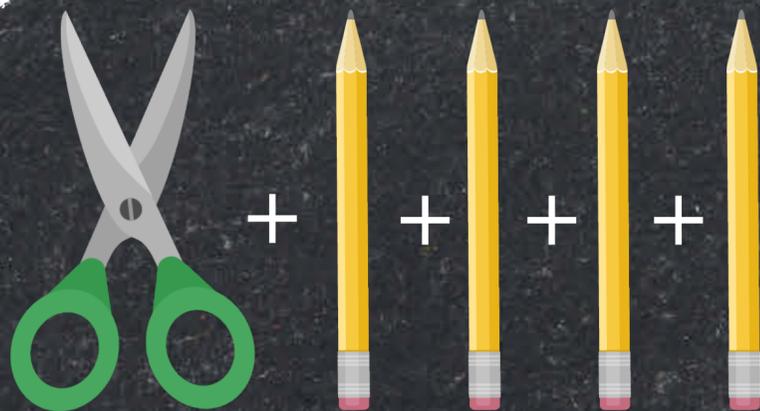

= 2

= 5

= 1

+

+

+

+

= 6

+

+

= 8

Work out how much each of these items is worth and solve the calculation.

x

= 9

x

= 6

=

x

= 12

x

=

=

=

Work out how much each of these items is worth and solve the calculation.

x

= 9

x

= 6

= 3

x

= 12

x

= 8

= 4

= 2

Which items can we buy?

I have 90p
to spend

I have £1.50
to spend

= 5p

= 2p

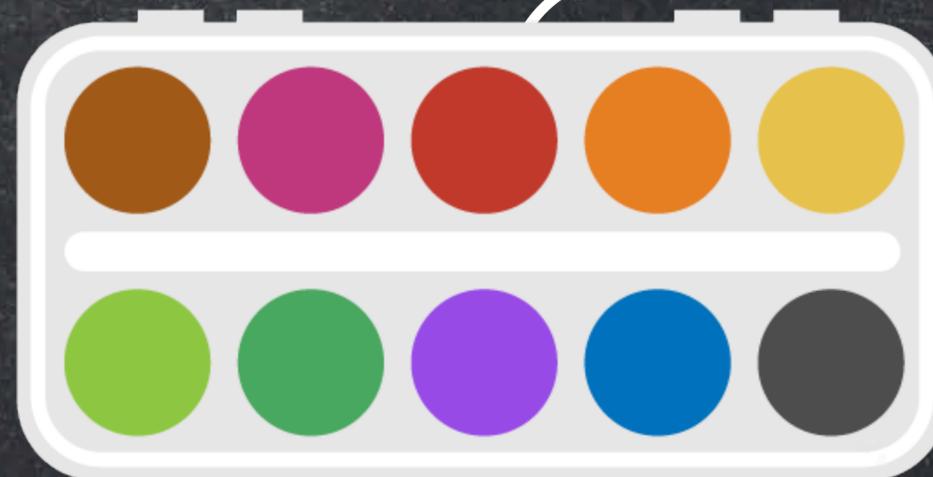

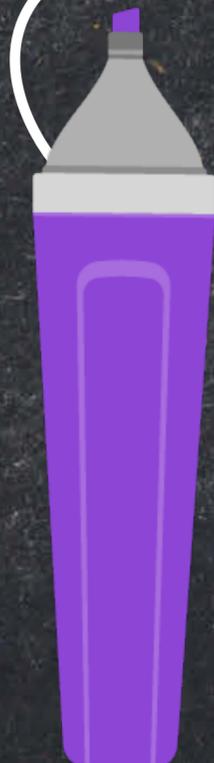

= 10p

= 80p

= 1p

= 50p

= 95p

Which items can we buy?

I have 68p
to spend

I have £2.15
to spend

= 5p

= 3p

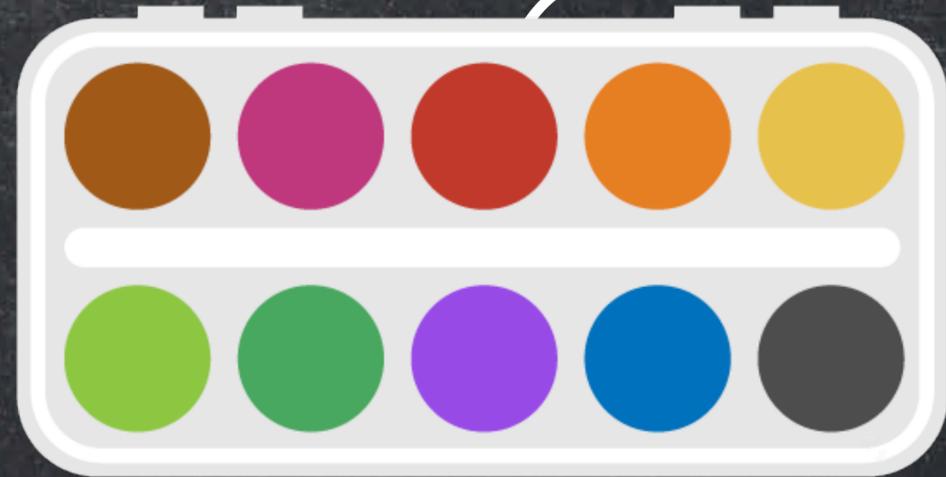

= £1

= 80p

= 20p

= 40p

= 95p

What happened here? Write a descriptive paragraph about this picture.

What happened here? Write a descriptive paragraph about this picture.

What happened here? Write a descriptive paragraph about this picture.

Write a short story about these pictures.

