

Grace Darling

Sequencing Cards

Grace Darling Sequencing Cards

Grace Darling was born in 1815 in Northumberland. She was the daughter of Thomasin and William Darling, a lighthouse keeper.

Grace Darling Sequencing Cards

When she was ten, Grace and her family moved into a lighthouse on Longstone, one of the Farne Islands.

Grace Darling Sequencing Cards

Early one stormy morning in 1838, Grace was looking out of the lighthouse window when she spotted a ship that had crashed on to some rocks.

Grace Darling Sequencing Cards

Grace looked through the lighthouse telescope and saw there were people clinging to the rocks.

She and her father rowed out to the wreck of the SS Forfarshire to see if they could help.

Grace Darling Sequencing Cards

Grace stayed on the rowing boat, keeping it steady and away from the rocks, while her father rescued five people.

Grace Darling Sequencing Cards

When they returned to the lighthouse, Grace stayed with the five survivors, while her father returned to the wreck to rescue four more.

They looked after them for three days until the storm passed.

Grace Darling Sequencing Cards

Grace and her father became heroes and were awarded medals for their bravery.

Grace became famous around the world and even received £50 from Queen Victoria.

