WC 1st June

Monday

Today we are practising reading and writing the words that have the blend of consonants 'nt' at the end of the word as in tent, bent, went, sent, rent, mint. Try practising to read and write these words. Start by blending the first three sounds together and then add the last sound to make the whole word. For example, you would read the word 'tent' by reading ten first and then adding t – tent.

Can you spot all the words that have 'nt' blend in this text?

This week we are staying in a tent because Mum forgot to rent a flat. The tent is good but there might be some ants in my things when I get back. There have been a lot of ants. I left a mint choc bar near the front of the tent. In the morning, the ants had got it.

Practise: enter some real and fake words with blend nt and drag the coins with the real one to the treasure chest and the fake ones to the dustbin.

Tuesday

Today we are practising reading and writing the words that have the blend 'nd' as in bond, land, pond, wind, hand, sand and 'nk' as in sink, pink, link, bank, tank. Can you read and write these words? Use the same method as yesterday by blending first three sound together and then add the last one.

Now try to think of some sentences with the words that have blends nd and nk in them. Write the sentences down.

Practise: enter some real and fake words with blends nd, nk and nt and help the dragons to find their eggs.

Wednesday

Today we are practising reading and writing the words with another set of blends at the end of the words – 'st' as in nest, vest, post, lost, best, rest; 'sk' as in desk, tusk, risk; 'xt' as in text, next and 'pt' as in kept, wept. Can you read and write these words?

Let's play Yes/No questions. Read the questions and use your thumbs up or thumbs down to show whether the answer is yes or no.

Can you put a tent next to a pond? Can you put a nest in a sink?

Is the rain pink? Can I rent a tank?
